Single Equality Scheme Policy

EQUALITY STATEMENT

Legal Duties

As a school we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The general duties are to:

- eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other prohibited conduct
- advance equality of opportunity (remove or minimise disadvantage; meet people's needs; take account of disabilities; encourage participation in public life)
- foster good relations between people (tackle prejudice and promote understanding)

We understand the principal of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity.

A protected characteristic under the act covers the groups listed below:

- age (for employees not for service provision),
- disability
- race
- sex (including issues of transgender)
- gender reassignment
- maternity and pregnancy
- religion and belief
- sexual orientation
- Marriage and Civil Partnership (for employees)

In order to meet our general duties, listed above, the law requires us to do some specific duties to demonstrate how we meet the general duties. These are to:

- Publish equality Information – to demonstrate compliance with the general duty across its functions (We will not publish any information that can specifically identify any child/.)
- Prepare and publish equality objectives

To do this we will collect data related to the protected characteristics above and analyse this data to determine our focus for our equality objectives. The data will be assessed across our core provisions as a school. This will include the following functions:

- Admissions
- Attendance
- Attainment
- Exclusions
- Prejudice related incidents

Our objectives will detail how we will ensure equality is applied to the services listed above however where we find evidence that other functions have a significant impact on any particular group we will include work in this area. We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

In fulfilling our legal obligations, we will:

- Recognise and respect diversity
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of belonging
- Observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development Aim to reduce and remove existing inequalities and barriers
- Consult and involve widely
- Strive to ensure that society will benefit

Our Vision and Ethos

The Federation aspires to provide the highest quality of learning experiences in a safe, caring environment in which each member of the school is respected as an individual and allowed to grow in confidence and develop to their full capability. We teach our children to be understanding and respectful of each other and the community we live in, and our children will have the confidence and skills to be happy and successful in our ever-changing world.

Our Aims:

We want to be recognised as a school where we provide an inspirational and creative curriculum to inspire children's aspirations. We aim to:

- ✓ Inspire our children to be independent, curious and confident
- ✓ Provide excellent teaching to ensure our achievement and attainment is above national expectations and where all children make excellent progress
- ✓ Prepare our children with the necessary knowledge, skills and resilience to confidently face the challenges in their lives
- ✓ Provide a caring environment where every person matters with strong home/school partnerships
- ✓ Attract and retain inspirational staff by ensuring the Federation is a rewarding and supportive place to work
- ✓ Create a stimulating, supportive and safe learning environment that is enhanced with first class teaching and learning resources
- ✓ Employ efficient and effective procedures to allow our focus to be on improving education
- ✓ Have sustainable, rigorous and robust financial control which allows us to further develop our future provision
- ✓ Lead with passion, clarity and vision for the community in which each school operates as well as the wider Chew Valley area

Our strategic aims are:

Aim 1: To ensure that the education provided by the Federation enables children to gain knowledge and experience in a wide variety of engaging and sustainable learning opportunities

Aim 2: To ensure that all members of our Federation community know their roles and responsibilities and consistently communicate high expectations and high ambition

Aim 3: To embed good mental health, general well-being and positive self-care behaviours in children, to support them in becoming global citizens who are able to contribute positively to society

Aim 4: To promote a positive learning environment that shows that children are engaged in their learning and are deeply involved in assessment processes and the feedback of learning experiences

Our school values are:

- Respect: We value each other's ideas, backgrounds, and differences, creating an inclusive and supportive environment where everyone feels heard and valued.
- Resilience: We embrace challenges with a growth mindset, persevering through difficulties and learning from setbacks to achieve our full potential.
- Reflection: We take time to consider our actions and learning, using self-awareness to grow, improve, and make positive contributions to our school and beyond.

Addressing Prejudice Related Incidents

This school is opposed to all forms of prejudice and we recognise that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice related discrimination may fair less well in the education system. We provide both our pupils and staff with an awareness of the impact of prejudice in order to prevent any incidents. If incidents still occur, we address them immediately and report them to the MAT/Local Authority using their guidance material.

Responsibility

We believe that promoting Equality is a whole school responsibility:

School Community	Responsibility
LGB	Involving and engaging the whole school community in identifying and understanding equality barriers and in the setting of objectives to address these. Monitoring progress towards achieving equality objectives. Publishing data and publishing equality objectives.

We will ensure that the whole school community is aware of the Single Equality Policy and our published equality information and equality objectives by publishing them on our school website and newsletters.

Breaches

Breaches to this statement will be dealt with in the same ways that breaches of other school policies are dealt with, as determined by the head teacher and governing body.

Monitor and Review

Every three years, we will review our objectives in relation to any changes in our school profile. Our objectives will sit in our overall school improvement plans and therefore will be reviewed as part of this process.

Equality Objectives 2025 - 2028:

(Also see our Pupil Premium Strategy Statement and behaviour policy)

1. To work closely with our school community to promote and celebrate an inclusive environment for all pupils and families
2. To engage with wider community groups about promoting knowledge and understanding of different cultures
3. To increase pupil awareness and understanding of different communities, beliefs, cultures and religions through high quality curriculum delivery, assemblies and cultural events
4. To raise awareness and skills of staff to promote fairness, equality and good relations in the context of their role
5. To ensure that the curriculum promotes and encourages a respectfulness for difference, diversity and ways of living
6. To ensure our curriculum content and the choice of texts across all curriculum areas reflect and celebrate diversity
7. To actively promote and consider applications from male staff in recruitment processes and if all other things are equal, employ more male staff to raise the balance of male/female staff
